Math or Science Teacher Positions

Application Deadline: April 15, 2011
(Deadline for References: April 15, 2011)

Camp Success is a one-week summer engineering program at Greenville Technical College for students entering the 7th or 8th grade. We are seeking school teachers whose subjects include math and/or science to be part of the Camp Success staff. Their duties are from 8am to 5pm, and their primary responsibility is to generate campers' interest in the engineering and technology that are central to the modern manufacturing world. Overall leadership regarding the engineering design process is provided by the facilitators of Camp Success. We will have three teachers working with 25 campers. The teacher positions are open to female or male applicants.
